

Wellington-Harrington

Neighborhood Study Update

Wellington-Harrington Neighborhood

Agenda

- Overview
- Demographics
- Housing
- Parks and Open Spaces

Overview: Neighborhood Studies

- Managed by Community Development (CDD)
- Began in 1988 in response to rapid development
- 11 studies completed
- Wellington-Harrington completed in mid-1990s

Background: Wellington-Harrington Study

- 8-member committee, met for 7 months (1992)
- Topics:
 - Land Use
 - Transportation
 - Housing
 - Economic Development
 - Open Space
- Produced Study Report

Study Updates

Starting in 2001, CDD began to:

- Review recommendations/ note progress
- Host public update meetings
- Add new recommendations
- Draft “Action Plans”

Purpose of Update Meetings

- Discuss changes in neighborhood
- Describe recent projects
- Introduce staff and programs
- Gather public comment about:
 - Housing
 - Parks/ open space
 - Land use/ zoning
 - Economic/ small business development
 - Transportation/ roadway projects